The Kilgore College Risk Management Institute is funded by a generous grant from the Texas Mutual Insurance Company, a leader in providing workers compensation insurance to Texas employers.

Safety training and education is a Texas Mutual priority because safe working places and informed workers create an improved record of loss prevention.

Kilgore College is pleased to be one of three Texas community colleges providing free risk management classes through a grant from Texas Mutual Insurance Company.

Classes and topics are added periodically.

Check the website for updates and for complete course descriptions.
