WHAT IS THE ICR PROGRAM?
The purpose of the Intensive College Readiness Program is to promote successful transition to college and college success. The program’s target population is:

- Non-traditional adults with a High School Equivalency who have never attended college, and
- Re-entering adult learners who have been out of high school three or more years, never attended college, but are now interested in attending college.

ICR PROVIDES academically at-risk students with opportunities to gain skills associated with persistence (continuing firmly in a course of action in spite of difficulty or opposition) and success in college. Daily instruction is provided in:

- Math
- Reading
- Writing
- College Knowledge & Computer Skills

AM I ELIGIBLE?
You are eligible if:

- Are 18 years of age or older with a High School Equivalency, or
- Graduated high school 3 or more years ago
- Plan to enroll in college the following semester. Are able to attend class everyday according to schedule, AND
- Are able to complete assigned homework

CERTIFICATE OF HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY TXCHSE (GED) PREPARATION
Kilgore College Adult Education and Literacy offers a variety of classes that help students prepare to take the High School Equivalency Exam (GED), which is the equivalent to a credential for high school completion. Classes are offered at Kilgore College, Kilgore College—Longview, and other sites throughout the tri-county area.

LITERACY, BASIC SKILLS AND EXAM PREPARATION
Kilgore College Adult Education and Literacy helps adults improve their reading, writing, and math skills for pre-employment, TSI (college placement exam), military entrance, or other pre-college level exams.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL)
Kilgore College Adult Education and Literacy helps adults improve their reading, writing, and math skills for pre-employment, TSI (college placement exam), military entrance, or other pre-college level exams.

INTEGRATED EDUCATION AND TRAINING (IET)
Kilgore College Adult Education and Literacy offers Integrated Education and Training (IET) that provides students the opportunity to acquire a combination of basic academic skills and industry-specific technical skills. Workforce preparation and training leads to a family-sustaining career with no or very little expense to the student. Typical course offerings include Professional Technical, Allied Health, Office Professional, and Customer Service. The basic academic skills part of this program is offered at sites throughout the tri-county area. The workforce part of the program is offered at Kilgore College and Kilgore College—Longview.

DISTANCE LEARNING
Kilgore College Adult Education and Literacy offers Distance Learning classes that are ideal for full-time workers, stay-at-home parents or caregivers, or those with medical restrictions; however, anyone can register. This program offers students the flexibility they need to continue their education while managing other responsibilities that prevent them from sitting in a traditional classroom. In order to qualify for this program, students must first commit to 12 hours of face-to-face instruction at one of the class sites.
