Presenter: Dr. Martha Ellis

There was a presentation on Guided Pathways by Dr. Martha Ellis. Dr. Ellis is Director of Higher Education Policy, Services, and Curriculum at the Charles A. Dana Center at the University of Texas at Austin. Creating guided pathways requires managing and sustaining large-scale transformational change. The work begins with thorough planning, continues through consistent implementation, and depends on ongoing evaluation. The goals are to improve rates of college completion, transfer, and attainment of jobs with value in the labor market—and to achieve equity in those outcomes. Presentation was followed with general discussion and information about Guided Pathways.
