The 1986 Lady Rangers basketball team, under the leadership of head coach Evelyn Blalock, was the first women’s team to win a conference championship in Kilgore College history.

They finished the regular season with a 21-7 overall record, going 8-2 in conference play.

In the regional tournament, the 1986 Lady Rangers defeated Henderson County, Tyler and Temple to win the Texas Eastern Conference Championship and qualify for the NJCAA National Tournament.

They won three out of four games in the national tournament and were ranked 7th in the nation at the end of the season, finishing with a 28-9 overall record.
