ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

The Kilgore College Music and Dance Department is excited to announce a new piano festival specifically for our East Texas area piano students! The KC Baroque and Classical Piano Festival offers local area young performers the opportunity for formal adjudication of an original composition by a Baroque Era (1600-1750) or Classical Era (1750-1830) composer. The 2019 Festival will be Saturday, March 30th, on the Kilgore College campus. Auditions will be from 8:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., in the Anne Dean Turk Fine Arts Building and winners will be posted promptly after the final performer from the auditions. Outstanding students will be chosen to perform in the Baroque and Classical Piano Festival Performers’ Concert at 3:00 p.m., in the Van Cliburn Auditorium.

REGISTRATION

Each student entering the Festival must send the following information on a 3 x 5 index card:

1. Name
2. Age
3. Telephone Number
4. Teacher’s Name
5. Teacher's Mail Address
6. Title of the compositions

A non-refundable $20 entry fee and a self-addressed, stamped envelope must accompany each index card. Failure to send in an index card for each student will result in disqualification of the student. Entries must be postmarked no later than March 8th, 2019. Checks should be made payable to Kilgore College Piano Club. Inquiries and entries should be addressed to Jonathan Kaan, Department of Music and Dance, Kilgore College, 1100 Broadway, Kilgore, Texas, 75662-3204. For more information, please contact Jonathan Kaan at 903-988-7519 or via email at JKaan@Kilgore.edu.

Piano Studies at KC

Piano studies at Kilgore College offer students a variety of solo and collaborative performance opportunities with our Piano Duo Recitals and Honor Concerts, along with general student recitals and performance classes. Our experienced piano faculty strive to provide interested students with exceptional and creative instruction, allowing them to develop well-defined leadership and performance skills at KC that prepare them to continue their education at a four-year college or university.
