One Act Play Festival
Monday, Feb. 13-17, 2023

This unique festival will include an opportunity to perform on stage for one hour and then have a working critique session for one hour with a trained Clinician (see reverse side for details).

The Van Cliburn Auditorium, on the campus of Kilgore College, is a 200 seat proscenium theater featuring state of the art acoustic design, an intimate house, and an easily accessible loading dock. It is home to the Kilgore College Theatre Department and the Texas Shakespeare Festival.

- Our LIGHT system will be focused in a 9 -15 generic area lighting plot. We will also have a blue, green, and red wash for the entire stage on two sub-masters.
- Our SOUND system is capable of playing from any device with a standard 1/8 inch or 1/4 inch phone connector or RCA jack.
- An experienced KC Theatre Technician will be in the booth to assist with all of your technical needs.
- Each school will also be assigned a Host and a Stage Manager from the moment of load-in to strike.
- A unit set will be provided but schools should bring any unit set pieces they plan on ‘abusing’.
- Students will receive promotional material for TSF and KC Theatre as well as potential scholarship offers.
- Each school will be offered a complimentary tour of the Texas Shakespeare Festival Center and the Kilgore College Main Campus.
- Social Distancing guidelines and other Covid-19 prevention measures will be in place
- *Our FEE this year is only $100.
