- Transportation of deceased clients

Healthy Texas Women

2-1-1 (option 2) or 877.541.7905 (toll-free) or Healthy Texas Women

Healthy Texas Women is a new program that includes family planning services, related preventative health services that are beneficial to reproductive health, and other preventive health services that positively affect maternal health and future pregnancies.

Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS)

DFPS Website

DFPS licenses and regulates childcare centers in Texas. You can find licensed and regulated childcare centers in your county on the website.

Birthing Centers

BC Website

DSHS licenses birthing centers where pregnant women can deliver their babies. The mother and unborn child must not have had complications during the pregnancy.

Early Child Intervention (ECI) Services

ECI Website

ECI is a statewide system of services for families of babies and toddlers, birth to 3 years of age, with disabilities or developmental delays.

Maternity Homes and Pregnancy Care Centers

Texas Pregnancy Website

Maternity homes serve pregnant women with a broad range of services, regardless of whether or not an adoption is planned. Texas does not regulate maternity homes.

Pregnancy care centers are private agencies that provide pregnancy counseling and support services. Texas does not license pregnancy care centers.

Women, Infants, Children Services (WIC) Supplemental Nutrition Program

800.942.3678 (toll-free) or Texas WIC Website

DSHS contracts with agencies and organizations to provide services under the WIC program. WIC provides nutrition education, nutritious foods, referrals to health and human services, breastfeeding support and immunizations at some clinics. Clients receive individual nutrition counseling and nutrition classes. Many clinics offer classes especially for children.
