Kilgore College
CLEP Credit-Granting Policy

- KC is an open CLEP testing center and offers all CLEP examinations for each testing session.
- KC will not award CLEP credit for courses in which a student is currently enrolled, previously enrolled courses which a student has previously taken or failed, or courses which are prerequisite to courses for which the student has already earned credit.
- KC will award credit only after the student enrolls at the college and earns 15 credit hours through classroom instruction.
- A student may earn a maximum of 24 credit hours through credit by examination.
- Students seeking CLEP credit at KC must pay the $25 posting fee to the Cashier's Office before credit will be posted to their Kilgore College transcript. Credit is posted through the Registrar's Office.
- KC will not award credit for scores more than 5 years old.
- Students should verify acceptance of CLEP credit with the college or university at which the student intends to enroll.
